

Common Sense™

Product Summary

Common Sense is a proprietary blend of Young Living essential oils and oil blends formulated to enhance reason and decision-making abilities. This unique blend will help users make healthier, more balanced decisions—bringing them closer to wellness, abundance, and discovering their true purpose.

Product Story

Common Sense is a proprietary blend of pure Young Living essential oils and oil blends formulated to increase mental acuity. Specially formulated by Gary Young, Common Sense is designed to improve decision-making abilities and strengthen everyday thinking skills. The oils in this blend include:

- + Frankincense to overcome stress.
- + Ylang ylang to calm, relax, and help release feelings of anger, tension, and nervous irritability.
- + Ocotea contributes high levels of alpha-humulene to balance the body's response to irritation.
- + Rue to relax the body and mind, counter stressed nerves, and rebalance energy.
- + Dorado Azul to promote healthy lung function and support measured breathing.
- + Lime to counter negativity.

Only available at Young Living, this blend will help relax, calm, and soothe body and mind, enabling users to focus and make choices rooted in common sense.
