FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Young Living Featured on Studio 5

Lehi, UT—Suzette Caplin, Young Living Lavender Farm marketing and PR director, was featured in the March 28 broadcast of Studio 5, a weekday Utah community lifestyle program on KSL Channel 5. Busy promoting Young Living’s upcoming Lavender Days celebration, Suzette represented Young Living Lavender Farm in the “Make-It-Yourself Beauty: Lavender Bliss” segment of the program, and taught about the many uses of lavender, which has long been known as the little herb that could.

Used by the ancient Romans for its healing and antiseptic properties, lavender has been increasingly recognized for its soothing properties. Suzette explained the many benefits of lavender, both physical and mental, and explained the difference between perfume-grade and higher quality therapeutic-grade essential oils. Suzette also demonstrated make-it-yourself beauty recipes including lavender bath fizzers, a lavender linen freshener, and lavender body scrub.
